OPENING REMARKS

By ASPPP Editor Ron Walenciak

I hope you enjoy this, our latest Journal, filled with information on our annual meeting in Chicago, the latest update on the American Commemorative Collectibles subscription program, and the results of our annual auction. There's also a bonus to those of you who would like to continue supporting your society through membership renewals: six free First Day Cancelled Stamp Posters! (See page 34.)

The next Journal will come pretty quickly after this one, probably in mid December. If you have any member ads or other information to submit, now would be the time.

We have an article in the planning stages for next time on the subject of first day cancelled

Commemorative Panels. These were known to exist in the 70's and have appeared often in recent years at first day ceremonies, especially for major stamp shows. If you have any in your collection, we would like to know about them; email me or write to me listing the Panel name or number along with a short description of the stamps, placement (ex: affixed on the top leaving the mint block intact, or replacing the mint block) and type of cancellation (ex: first day cancel, show cancel, show first day cancel, unofficial cancel.) Please do it as soon as you can.

I would also be interested in knowing of any autographed Commemorative Panels; while Souvenir Pages are sometimes autographed, I have never seen such a Panel.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

By Ron Walenciak

On page 6 you'll find an article by Cassandra Abdelmeguid of the USPS updating us on future plans for the Cancellation Page and Commemorative Panel programs. I'm pleased to say that our collective voices have been heard and that they are taking steps to make the Pages more interesting and more desirable (which will benefit all of us!) I'm also pleased that they are committed to producing a Page for the Old Glory stamps that will be issued in the Prestige Booklet format used for the Submarines in the year 2000 (you will recall that a Souvenir Page was not issued for the Submarines stamps).

The ASPPP will continue to be your voice to the USPS, lobbying on your behalf. I also feel that this society can help the USPS in their quest to make Cancellation Pages and Commemorative Panels two world-class philatelic items; we have a lot to offer them: a veritable wealth of Souvenir Page, Commemorative Panel and other philatelic knowledge.

While I really want to use this Journal column to discuss our Americover 2002 show experiences, I want to mention something about our participation in Stampshow 2002. I entered our Journal into the Philatelic Literature Exhibition competition, and we received a Silver-Bronze award. While that's pretty much what I've expected at APS shows, I was interested to read the judge's comments on our publication. He stated that our Journal had a nice mixture of current news and events on Pages and Panels together with personal collecting experiences (he liked that), but was wondering about the amount of space we used to discuss or complain about the latest thing the USPS did (or didn't do) to Pages or Panels, and whether that's a direction that we really wanted to go. I've never seen it that way; I know that we discuss Page and Panel issues because we love these philatelic items, and because we see ourselves as your representatives to the USPS. We will continue to keep you informed of issues and we will continue to work with the USPS to increase interest in these collectibles. I think Cassandra's response to our email and our face-to-face discussions in Chicago validates what we have done thus far and the direction we have taken our Journal. I hope you agree!

Americover 2002 (July in Chicago, IL) was a good show for Pages and Panels. While we didn't increase our membership rolls there, the number of exhibits that included Pages or Panels with first day covers has increased dramatically!

John Glenn's Project Mercury flight was one of the show topics, and there were a few exhibits on covers for the 4-cent Project Mercury stamp. Two of those exhibits used mint Stamp Posters to show the stamp (and they were quite an attraction from across the room, since they are much larger than covers.)

An exhibit on Scott Joplin had a 1983 Postal Bulletin first day, a Souvenir Page, a Commemorative Panel and even a Postal Commemorative Society page.

An exhibit on the 1964 earthquake in Alaska used an Amateur Radio Operators Stamp Poster to compliment the story of how radio operators kept everyone in communication.

Two exhibits on tagging included Stamp Posters. one on "Luminescent Tagging, The 10-Year Experiment" used a mint Stamp Poster from 1 Aug 1963 to illustrate the 8-cent tagged Jet and Capitol, and a 5 Dec 1962 Stamp Poster with a sheet, coil and booklet first day of the original untagged stamp.

The other exhibit, "Tagging Omitted Errors On US First Day and Earliest Known Use Covers" had some very interesting (and confusing) items. There was a Stamp Poster for the 6-cent American Flag (7 Aug 1970) and an announcement poster (that the "A" stamp equals 15-cents US Postage) with a single untagged "A" stamp. The confusing items were Stamp Posters with both a tagged and a tagging-omitted version on the poster cancelled on the first day. The Posters were for the 16-cent Ernie Pyle (7 May 1971), the 8-cent Eisenhower (10 May 1971), the 21-cent Jet airmail (21 May 1971) and the 15-cent Robert Kennedy (12 Jan 1979). I wasn't able to talk to the exhibitor, but I think it would be difficult to get tagged and untagged versions on a Stamp Poster! Perhaps the untagged stamps were discovered within the time frame allowed for grace cancellations? I'll see what I can find out and report back to you in a future column.

Foreign pages were also represented in an exhibit on "Forbidden Fruit, FDC of Revolutionary Cuba". Cuba has New Issue Posters with images of the stamps (the image is printed in a black box and includes part of a circular date cancellation on the stamp, making it look like a cancelled-to-order specimen) and technical information, along with an image of the stamps first-day-of-issue pictorial cancellation. Information is printed in English, Spanish, German and French. Two different posters were included in the first day cover exhibit.

Jim Canon provided an additional view of foreign pages with his "Worldwide Counterparts to Pages & Panels" multi-media show. Using three slide projectors, two computers and a tape recorder, Jim illustrated various worldwide pages and panels with accompanying music. He also had originals on hand for anyone to examine, and provided a lot of personal experiences and information about these collectibles. I would like to thank Jim for bringing all of that to Chicago!

Once again, we advised the dealers who were signed up for Americover that our society was going to be there, and at least five of them showed up with a great selection of Souvenir Pages and Stamp Posters (and a few Commemorative Panels.) Gerald Blankenship had the "find" of the show (or the century!) which was a 76-1 (1 Jan 1976) Spirit Of 76 error with the 2 Jan 1976 date cancellation; Gerald found it in a $2 box at a dealer's table! The Page is so rare that it's no longer assigned a value in the Postal Service Guide to US Stamps but has a catalog value of around $600. A few collectors stopped by the society table with Pages to sell, too. [Picture on Page 10.]

Which leads me to ask once again, why don't more of our members attend the Americover shows? If you live in the Chicago area, why didn't you drive over and spend an afternoon discussing Pages and Panels? There were great exhibits, great bargains, great people, at least one interesting seminar and our annual membership meeting. Admission to the show was free, including a first day ceremony for the Coverlet Eagle stamp (with a live bald eagle!) We had advance copies of new Cancellation Pages and Commemorative Panels to review, and a lively discussion of the Page and Panel programs and the collectibles themselves ensued, as well as a discussion of our new web site (www.asppp.org) and our plans for the future. Please email me and let me know what you think about this lack of participation; I'm now at ronw@asppp.org.

Thanks to Roger Sunnquist and Clayton Welter, who spent considerable time at the show and the society table, as well as Fred Bean (The Stamp Professor) and Marge Canon. And thanks for their donations (and Mark Gereb's) of Pages and Stamp Posters to be given out as samples or promotions. Thanks to Board Members Gerald Blankenship, Jim Canon, Gary West and John Ngai, too, for their efforts at the show, and to Cassandra Abdelmeguid of the USPS. Sorry if I left anyone out; I knew I should have written this in July instead of September <grin>.)

UPDATE ON THE AMERICAN COMMEMORATIVE COLLECTIBLES PROGRAM

By Cassandra Abdelmeguid (USPS)

It's been a year of extreme challenges for the U.S. Postal Service and the American Commemorative Collectibles program. Even before the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the anthrax contamination from the bio-terrorist events of September and October 2001, the Postal Service was fighting to remain viable. We are continuing our fight and will survive through a major Postal "Transformation" that improves our fiscal picture through restructuring of resources and enlarging and maintaining our customer bases. Such an overhauling has not been done since the 1970 legislation that created the United States Postal Service in 1971. And the Subscription program had not been revamped and completely redesigned in more than twenty-five years.

To meet stringent fiscal requirements and keep the Collectibles program alive, we obtained a contract that substantially cut our production costs and acquired the services of premier stamp designer Derry Noyes. Because the contract was procured at the end of February, we had to redesign and produce the program items quickly so that subscribers could receive them as soon as possible.

Good news! We have caught up. Only four cancellation pages remain to be printed. (The majority of American Commemorative Panels have also been produced.) One of the challenges to shipping them to you more quickly is that the machines can insert a maximum of seven items in an envelope. Also, we've learned that we should wait at least three weeks between shipments to allow enough time for subscribers to put funds into their accounts. Nevertheless, all cancellations shipments will be completed by the end of the year.

For the 2003 program, as you have requested, American Commemorative Cancellations will be redesigned to include graphics, larger fonts, repositioning of elements on the page, and a more stylized, artistic look that compares favorably to other country's issues.

Next year's program will include the issuance of a second prestige book of twenty stamps – Old Glory. The five stamp designs feature photographs of patriotic ephemera inspired by the colors and design of the Flag. We have arranged for the stamps to be included on American Commemorative Collectibles Panels, Collection and Cancellations pages.

We are committed to excellence and will do everything possible to satisfy our customers who have remained loyal to us for so many years. We will produce superior world-class products in a timely manner while maintaining fiscal accountability through this period of severe budget constraints. And, we will continue efforts to increase the viability of the American Commemorative Collectibles programs by attracting new customers.

Thank you for your continued support and patience as we meet the challenges of the "Transformation".

MINUTES OF THE 2002 ANNUAL MEETING

By ASPPP Secretary John Ngai

The 2002 meeting of the membership and Board of Directors of the ASPPP, American Society for Philatelic Pages and Panels, was held at the Marriott Oak Brook Hotel, in Chicago (Oak Brook), Illinois on July 13, 2002 at 4 PM in the Elmhurst room.

Board members attending included Ron Walenciak, John Ngai, Gary West, Gerald Blankenship, and Jim Canon. With a majority of the board members present, the meeting was called to order. Other attendees included Fred Bean, May Day Taylor, Clayton Welter and Roger Sunnquist from the Chicago area, and Cassandra Abdelmeguid from the USPS in Washington, DC. All totaled, 12 people were at the meeting. [Picture on page 10.]

Ron Walenciak, Board President, welcomed all the attendees, and commented that attendance was consistent with previous annual meetings, and extended thanks to Ms. Abdelmeguid for coming to our meeting.

Special thanks by the ASPPP was also given to Ms. Abdelmeguid for providing a supply of three of the newly redesigned Souvenir Pages (now called American Commemorative Cancellations) for distribution at the show, including the Page for the 60 cent Eagle stamp, which was the subject of a First Day Of Issue ceremony at the Amerrycover show on July 12, 2002, as well as samples of 2 new Commemorative Panels. The above were distributed to all members present at the meeting. Ron Walenciak also obtained the official USPS Amerrycover show cancel and had it placed on the Souvenir Page along with an additional 60 cents eagle stamp (see following page).

The secretary advised that the minutes of the 2001 annual meeting were printed in the August 2001 Journal, Vol. 18 No. 3. A motion was made by Gerald Blankenship to accept the minutes as published, seconded by Fred Bean, and approved by a unanimous vote by all members present.

John Ngai, Secretary/Treasurer, reported that the current balance as of July 3, 2002 was $6097.60, with a current year to date deficit of $1551.93; this compared to a deficit of $1067.95, at the same time last year. Membership had declined to 447 vs 489 last year.

The deficit is not unexpected at this time of the year, as the auction Journal (Vol. 19 No. 2) was just published, and we await the auction commission proceeds. However, it was pointed out that the increase in the deficit is fully attributed to the decline in memberships, as expenses have remained the same year to year. A discussion ensued as to what can be done to increase the membership rolls and stabilize our financial position.

Cassandra Abdelmeguid, of the USPS, indicated that since she has control of a new newsletter that is going to accompany Pages and Panels, and that she might be able to include the name of our society and contact in the newsletter. This is welcome news to the ASPPP, as this would provide the society with the exposure that we need, which in years past had encouraged memberships.

Ron Walenciak called for a discussion of any Old Business:

At previous shows, Jim Canon has made a presentation on Pages and Panels; this is an update to a slide presentation created by Bud Scrantom for Ameripex in 1986. ASPPP member Charles McClure has converted the slide presentation into a CD-ROM, with typed captions

Coverlet Eagle

This stamp features an artistic rendering by Arthur G. Merkley of a detail from a Tyler coverlet. Harry Tyler (1801–1858) was a weaver who lived in Jefferson County, New York. Tyler made this coverlet, or bedspread, circa 1853 for Calista C. James.

The detail from the coverlet is an eagle emblem used by Tyler to sign his work. In the two bottom corners of his coverlets, he wove his personal symbol, along with the name of his customer, the date when the coverlet was made, and the words "Jefferson. Co. NY." From 1834 to 1844 Tyler used a lion to identify his coverlets. As a patriotic gesture, in 1845 he adopted the eagle as his new emblem.

replacing Jim's audio tape. While acceptable to a degree, it is still a "work in progress", as it was generally agreed the CD-ROM should have audio.

The issue of the catalog to be placed on a CD was again discussed. At the 2001 meeting, it was decided there would be no on-going effort to print a catalog. However, Gerald Blankenship has developed an extensive data base and inventory from his personal involvement as well as information from the auctions conducted by the ASPPP over the years. As the ASPPP website is up and running, there is a very good possibility that this information could be placed on the website for printing and viewing. Gerald and Ron agreed to work on this project for the website. Hence, the issue of printing a hard copy catalog or inventory list has been tabled. Printing a hard copy with pictures would be both time consuming and cost prohibitive.

On the subject of the web site - Ron Walenciak advised that the website is up and running, with selected information. The website name is: www.asppp.org. It is also a "work in progress" and Ron indicated he expects to continually add new features to the website. A discussion ensued about the content on the website, and Ron asked for suggestions, improvements, etc. He indicated that presently he has the cover page from the last 3 journals on the website, and expected to probably include an index in the future. He would provide various links to other sites such as the USPS, APS, AFDCS, some dealers, and would consider listing the ASPPP donated lots for sale on the website, as well as possibly placing future years auctions on the website.

It was pointed out that there are no present plans to put the entire Journal on the website. It was agreed that the society will continue to print the Journal in hard copy format at the present time. The board thanked Ron for his time and efforts to make the website a reality.

Ron then called for a discussion of New Business:

Ron Walenciak announced that he has appointed May Day Taylor to a seat on the ASPPP Board of Directors; this action was endorsed by the Board, and May Day Taylor has accepted the position. Part of her responsibility will be to provide publicity for the society. She is qualified due to her involvements with societies such as APS, AFDCS, and ACPS.

A lifetime membership was presented to Ron Walenciak on behalf of the ASPPP by Gerald Blankenship, Membership Chairman, in appreciation of and recognition for Ron's tireless efforts over the years as Editor, President, and Board Member, and for his active participation in the affairs of the ASPPP. This action was endorsed by the Board of Directors. [Picture on page 10.]

No other items having come before the board, the motion was made to close the meeting; the meeting was therefore adjourned at 5:30PM, with Ron Walenciak advising that the next meeting will be in Somerset, New Jersey on August 2, 2003. Ron requested the membership to attend.

Meeting sites for future years include St. Louis, MO in 2004 and Washington, DC in 2005. Note that the previously-announced location for the 2004 meeting (Washington DC) has been changed.

MEDAL OF HONOR

By Gerald Blankenship

Hiroshi Miyamura, fondly known as Hershey by his good friends, was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for heroism that went far beyond the call of duty on April 24, 1951. While the gallant acts that earned him that honor are worth noting and reading, it is the indomitable spirit displayed in the events that followed that have captured this reader's eye. Thus, take the time to read the citation recounting Miyamura's acts of bravery but journey with me for a bit as I share a true story of an American hero.

Born in 1925 in Gallup, New Mexico, Miyamura lived the life of a typical American boy. A second generation Japanese-American, or Nisei, he was the product of a family which had fully assimilated into American culture and pursuing the American Dream. He did not learn to speak Japanese, and he did not eat Japanese cuisine. When World War II broke out and many of the Japanese families were sent to camps, his town signed petitions to keep their Japanese-American families out of the camps.

Like thousands of other young men, he was drafted into the Army in 1943 and served with the 442nd Battalion comprised of Japanese-Americans. Because he acquired a hernia, he was unable to join the battalion in the war effort and went on to serve out his time in Italy. The 442nd Regimental Combat Team along with the 100th Infantry Battalion went on to become the most decorated units in the Army and the subject of Miyamura's admiration. When he completed his tour, he joined the reserves and was called to active duty when the United States became involved in the Korean conflict. He earned his Medal of Honor April 24, 1951, defending American positions near Taejon-ni, Korea. As you read the events described in the citation, you will see that his bravery lived up to the spirit exemplified by the 442nd and the 100th battalions, which he so admired.

In the days following the battle, separated from his troops, wounded by a grenade, and covered with gashes from an encounter with a barbed-wire fence, he was captured by a Chinese soldier and became a prisoner of war. Promised life and leniency by his captor, he was sent to one of the "rehabilitated" POW camps which was supposed to be in compliance with The Lenient Policy: "POW's were to be treated as well-or as poorly-as felons in China" (Mikaelian 210). The conditions fell far short of the Geneva Convention. Miyamura was marched thirty days to Camp One, Changsong, near the Chinese-Korea border. He and the other prisoners of war were fed a diet of finely ground rice, millet, and barley, which was supposed to bloat the stomach and make you feel full. Some rejected the diet and died. Some ate it, developed dysentery, and died. Others managed to survive. Hershey described the event as being "cold, hungry, and demoralized." When they reached Camp One, they were fed one meal a day – a shallow bowl of broth. This inadequate diet had to sustain them as they toiled gathering firewood and labored for the Koreans. Attempts to brainwash the prisoners were met with so much resistance that they gave up. However they did succeed at breaking the spirit of many of the men through war propaganda – making the American efforts to win appear futile and their release unlikely. Miyamura states that some gave up and died, but he knew that his family needed him and that gave him the strength to endure. At home his family knew only that he had been listed as missing in action. Fearing retribution, the Army classified his medal and citation as a military secret. On August 5, 1953, Miyamura was released as part of the Operation Big Switch. Crossing the bridge to Freedom Village, his eyes fell on the American flag waving victoriously, and he knew that he was truly free. Soon after, the secret hero was informed of the glorious honor bestowed upon him and returned home to a hero's welcome.

MEDAL OF HONOR (CONTINUED)

Hiroshi Miyamura and his wife set up house keeping in Gallup and had three children. He owned and operated the first service station in Gallup. After retirement, he began speaking at schools, events, and Japanese-American community centers.

*With Best Wishes
Hiroshi H. Miyamura*

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

The President of the United States of America takes pleasure in presenting the MEDAL OF HONOR to

HIROSHI H. MIYAMURA
UNITED STATES ARMY

for service as set forth in the following

Citation: Corporal Hiroshi Miyamura, a member of Company H, 7th Infantry Regiment, 3rd Infantry Division, distinguished himself by conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty in action against the enemy. On the night of 24 April 1951, near Taejon-ni, Korea, Company H was occupying a defensive position when the enemy fanatically attacked threatening to overrun the position. Corporal Miyamura, a machine-gun squad leader, aware of the imminent danger to his men unhesitatingly jumped from his shelter wielding his bayonet in close hand-to-hand combat killing approximately 10 of the enemy. Returning to his position, he administered first aid to the wounded and directed their evacuation. As another savage assault hit the line, he manned his machine-gun and delivered withering fire until his ammunition was expended. He ordered the squad to withdraw while he stayed behind to render the gun inoperative. He then bayoneted his way through infiltrated enemy soldiers to a second gun emplacement and assisted in its operation. When the intensity of the attack necessitated the withdrawal of the company Corporal Miyamura ordered his men to fall back while he remained to cover their movement. He killed more than 50 of the enemy before his ammunition was depleted and he was severely wounded. He maintained his magnificent stand despite his painful wounds, continuing to repel the attack until his position was overrun. When last seen he was fighting ferociously against an overwhelming number of enemy soldiers. Corporal Miyamura's indomitable heroism and consummate devotion to duty reflect the utmost glory on himself and uphold the illustrious traditions of the military service.

Medal of Honor Commemorative Stamp

A 20-cent commemorative stamp honoring the Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military award for valor, and all who have received it was issued June 7 in Washington, D. C. The first day of issue ceremony was held at The Pentagon.

The Medal of Honor, which is often referred to as the Congressional Medal of Honor, was instituted in 1861 for the U. S. Navy and in 1862 for the U. S. Army. U. S. Air Force personnel were awarded the Army Medal of Honor until 1965, when an Air Force Medal was created.

The first Medals of Honor were awarded March 25, 1863, to six members of Andrews' Raiders, who participated in what has come to be known as "The Great Locomotive Chase." Since that time, the Medal of Honor has been awarded to more than 3,400 individuals for "courage above and beyond the call of duty."

The design of the stamp features from left to right, the Army, Navy and Air Force Medals of Honor. All three are suspended from the blue neck ribbon with white stars common to each of the three decorations. The design was developed by Dennis J. Holm, a Postal Service employee, in coordination with The Institute of Heraldry of the U. S. Army and the Department of Defense.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

By ASPPP President Ron Walenciak

Every two years we hold elections for members of the ASPPP Board of Directors. The next election is scheduled for the 4th Quarter of this year, and ballots will appear in the 4th Quarter Page & Panel Journal.

As per our society Bylaws, any member in good standing may nominate him/herself or any other member in good standing to run for a seat on the Board of Directors. At this time, also according to the Bylaws, I am asking for nominations.

Send any nominations to me at either our post office box address on page 2 or my email address, ronw@asppp.org. Nominations should be received by November 30, 2002. I would also appreciate a short statement or bio that will be published along with the election ballot.

It is expected that Board Members will take on some function or responsibility within the society and will attend the annual meeting, which is held during the AFDCS' Americover show, and work at the society table.

Society officers are chosen from the members of the Board of Directors after election.

ATTENTION ASPPP MEMBERS

We still need donations of Souvenir Pages, Stamp Posters and even Commemorative Panels, if you have any to spare. At each annual meeting we give away dozens of Pages to prospective members and we have tried an experiment in Linn's where a new membership included 6 free Stamp Posters. We have been including a set of North American Wildlife Pages with each new paid membership as an Americover show special and as a web special (which worked very well in Houston, not as well in Denver or Chicago.) A member donated 15 sets for that purpose and we are running low. Also, we are accepting item's as donations to the ASPPP to help raise funds for special projects. In the future we hope to have available a CD with several inventory lists of Souvenir Pages, Commemorative panels, as well as PNC Pages, Pages with coil lines, and Pages with booklet varieties. This is only one of the many projects your board is working on.

Send any donations to ASPPP, P.O. Box 475, Crosby TX 77532.

2002 ANNUAL AUCTION

By ASPPP Auction Chairman Gerald Blankenship

I want to thank each member who helped make this one of the most successful ASPPP auctions ever. There were 1,064 lots. Five lots were withdrawn because the lots were not described properly; they are lots #36, 160, 435, 569 and 973. Many of you are the new owners of Souvenir Pages, Commemorative Panels, Stamp Posters or the other numerous items in the auction. There were 568 lots that had successful bidders, and those winning bids are shown on the following pages. [Editor's Note: Once again, I've listed the descriptions of the auction lots with the winning bids. I've always found it interesting to see the results of the auction, even when I didn't bid. I think it's interesting to see what items are popular and what items are not. I also think it gives you an idea of the value of items you might like to sell next time, and maybe an indication of the value of your collection, especially if you have items with watermarks, booklet pane plate num- bers or plate number coils; these items are not valued in most catalogs or the Postal Service Guide to US Stamps. I hope you agree.] The auction total is $8,336.98. Of this $633.25 was bid on ASPPP lots. The 10% commission on the auction comes to $770.55. By the time you read this all owners who had items in the auction will have been paid. I want to thank Mr. Clayton Welter for his donation of pages for next year's auction. You can be a part of next year's auction by sending your lots to me at my address listed in the Journal on page 2. It is never too early to start preparing for the 2003 ASPPP auction. We still need Page donations to be given away at our annual meeting and to new members who join. A gift of ten sets of North American Wildlife Souvenir Pages was donated, and we have been giving away a set of these with each new membership. Some people like the incentive to join. Again, let me say thank you for your bids.

ASPPP WEB SITE

By Ron Walenciak

The ASPPP web site came on-line in early July at www.asppp.org. After many months of discussions on the need for the society to have a presence on the web, I finally jumped in and created something that would tell the world about our favorite collectibles: Pages and Panels.

My plan was for the site to explain who we were as a society, and what were these items we collected. In addition to background information, it would provide current information on subjects related to Pages and Panels, a place to join our society, email addresses to contact us, and a place for us to offer society items for sale. I think we've met that plan.

Our home page announces who we are and shows a sample Page and Panel (see the cover of this issue; the web illustrations are in full color, of course!), and "Contact Us" allows anyone to email the ASPPP Board Members directly.

"Our Mission" describes who we are and what we do. "What Are Pages and Panels" describes and illustrates Souvenir Pages, Stamp Posters, Commemorative Panels, and creations by Bud Scrantom and Jim Canon (with Robert Porter to be added soon.)

Each month (since August) I show a "Page or Panel of the Month" to show something interesting but unusual in Pages and Panels, and at the same time try and interest collectors who might visit the site. The first month was a Stamp Poster with a first day cancelled plate block, followed in September by a first day cancelled Commemorative Panel, and an autographed Souvenir Page in October.

As a service to members (and visitors), we list the "Page and Panel Wave History" as pictured on the following page; this should give you a notice of exactly what has been received so that you will know if your collection is up to date. Eventually this will be expanded to include images of each new Page and Panel, and our site will have a complete illustrated history of Pages, Panels, Stamp Posters and privately-produced Philatelic Pages.

We also list Page & Panel-related events on our "Event Calendar" page. Past events are deleted the day after the event, but we have noted philatelic shows where we have a presence, and a guest appearance by Cassandra Abdelmeguid of the USPS at the AFDCS' Graebner Chapter meeting. If anyone has any events they would like included, email or write to me and just let me know.

We have a "For Sale By The ASPPP" page where we list items such as Jim Canon's "Missing Year 2000 Souvenir Pages" Facsimile Pages (which has it's own web page as well) along with any available back issues of the Page and Panel Journal. Our "Page & Panel Journal" webpage lists some information about our award-winning publication and links to pictures of the covers along with tables of content.

"Related Links" allows you to easily view other web sites for organizations we are associated with and dealer-members of the ASPPP who we are pleased to advertise to you. "USPS Subscription Information" is also available to encourage collectors to subscribe to the US Postal Service's various programs.

I see our web site as a continually evolving project. I hope you will come by and visit, and return often to see what else we've added! (For example, we anticipate having downloadable Excel spreadsheets listing every Page, Panel and Stamp Poster.) I email our members each month with a note on changes and additions to the site; if you don't have your email address on file with the society, email me at ronw@asppp.org and I'll add you to the list.

If you have any suggestions for improvements or ideas for things that should be included on the site, feel free to email me about those, too.

Page & Panel Wave History

The following waves (shipments) have been mailed by the USPS for stamps issued in 2002. The dates listed are based on receipt here in New Jersey and New York; if you have not received a wave within a month of these dates, you should consider contacting the USPS directly to review your account. (Expired credit cards are probably the biggest cause of a missing shipment; address changes should also be reported to the USPS as early as possible.)

Missing Year 2000 Souvenir Pages

In the year 2000, stamps were issued to commemorate US Navy Submarines, Space Achievement and Exploration, Moon Landing, Escaping the Gravity of Earth, Probing the Vastness of Space, and Exploring the Solar System. The USPS, in an attempt to follow some obscure "rule" of its own creation, declined to create Souvenir Pages for these stamps and souvenir sheets because they "cannot" affix one "Philatelic Product" (the stamps) to another "Philatelic Product" (a Souvenir Page).

These are the only US postage stamps issued without a Souvenir Page since the beginning of the Souvenir Page program in 1972.

Jim Canon of Canon Postal Heritage created the facsimile "Souvenir Pages" shown below to fill the void that now exists in each of our collections. Note that the stamps, sheets and cancellations are facsimiles, not the actual stamps. At the point where we were advised that these Souvenir Pages were not being made, there wasn't time to create private Philatelic Pages and have the actual stamps affixed and canceled.

Jim donated a number of sets of these Pages to the ASPPP and we have added them to our For Sale by the ASPPP web page. Profits from the sale of these facsimile pages go directly to the ASPPP treasury.

Please consider sending a letter expressing your disappointment in not receiving the actual Souvenir Pages to Catherine Caggiano, Executive Director of Stamp Services, USPS, 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW, Washington DC 20260. You can also send a copy to Cassandra Abdelmeguid, USPS Marketing Specialist, 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW Rm 4474E, Washington DC 20260-2439.

ASPPP MEMBER RENEWAL BONUS OFFER

The society received a donation of First Day Cancelled Stamp Posters, and in an attempt to entice some of you into expanding your Page collection beyond the boundaries of the USPS subscription, we made an offer on our web site to give six (6) free Stamp Posters with each two-year renewal. Catalog value is in excess of $30, easily exceeding the $29 cost of a membership renewal. We would also like to extend this offer to our members who do not have web access or simply haven't seen our society website. (If you do have web access, go to www.asppp.org as they look a lot better in color.)

You can choose any six from among the twelve Stamp Posters shown below. Offer valid while supplies last. Send a renewal form along with your check to Gerald Blankenship, ASPPP Membership Chairman, PO Box 475, Crosby TX 77532.
